ANNUAL TRACK AND FIELD MEET

Seventh Annual Meeting of Inter-High School Association—Track and Literary Contests at Normal.

The seventh annual meeting of the Northwest Missouri Inter-High School Association will be held in Maryville, May 5 and 6. The entries this year are quite in advance over those of preceding years. The association includes contests in oratory, declamation, essay, extemporaneous speaking and track work. The extemporaneous speaking is a new addition to the contests. It is open to both girls and boys, girls competing with girls and boys with boys. Each speaker will be given one hour to think upon the subject selected by himself from a list submitted to him. Five minutes will be allowed each speaker.

The many students of the district are hoping that the closing days of this week will be sunny and fair in contrast to the showers and mud of preceding years.

The names of the contestants, the school which each attends, and the subject of the essay, oration, or declamation follow:

EUREKAN ASSEMBLY PROGRAM.

The Eureka Literary Society was the first of the societies to entertain the faculty and students at the assembly hour this quarter. This entertainment, which was given Tuesday, April 18, was in the form of a musical program. Chas. McReynolds, president of the society, presided. Misses Lucille Holmes opened the program with a piano solo which was much enjoyed. "Way Down in Maine," was sung in a most charming manner by the quartet composed of Eugene Allison, Philip Colbert, Verne Pickens and Maurice Fitzgerald. Amidst hearty applause they came back to sing the encore but stealthily, one by one, they timidly disappeared. The boys finally closed their part of the program with a profound bow. Misses Hazel Wallace and Merle Levy then played a piano duet. "Keep Smiling," the pianolog so well rendered by Miss Edith Holt made each one keep smiling until all school worries had been forgotten. The four Dietz sisters who played stringed instruments gave two pleasing numbers. The next number was given by the ladies' quartet, composed of Misses Vida Heflin, Jessie Ewing, Blanche Criswell and Janet Mutz. The closing number was a vocal duet by Misses Blanche Criswell and Ruby Irwin.

Eurekan Contestants Chosen.

The Eureka Literary Society held the preliminary contest in declamation Thursday afternoon, April 27. Misses Vida Heflin and Elizabeth Sobbing were the contestants. Miss Sobbing was awarded first place. She read "As the Moon Rose," by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps. Miss Heflin read "The Sin of the Carpenter Man," by Edmund Vance Cook.

The final contestants in essay, oratory and debate in this society are:

Essay: Miss Mahala Saville, Miss Anna Wells, Maurice B. Fitzgerald. Oratory: Chas. McReynolds. Debate: Lowell L. Livengood, Earl C. Borchers.

Former Student Married.

Mrs. Ella Hale and J. R. O'Neal were married by Rev. Robert C. Holliday, Monday evening, May 1. The bride is one of Nodaway county's successful school teachers. She was in school here last summer. For the present Mr. and Mrs. O'Neal will live in Maryville. Later they will move to Topeka, Kansas.

Miss Ruby Windsor, a former student here, paid the Normal a visit Tuesday, April 25.

GAVE COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS.

Dean G. H. Colbert gave the Commencement address of Blythedale High School April 21. He was the commencement speaker at the Amity High School exercises held April 26. Leslie Somerville is principal at Blythedale and has been re-employed for the coming year. Miss Lenora Badger holds a similar position in the Amity schools and she, too, has been re-elected.

Pres. Ira Richardson went to Elmo April 25, where he gave an address at the commencement exercises held there that evening. He spoke at McFall on Thursday night, April 26. After the commencement exercises he drove to Pattonsburg and there attended the latter part of a Booster Good Roads meeting held under the direction of the Commercial Club of that place. The following day Mr. Richardson attended to business affairs in Columbia, Mo. He went to St. Louis Saturday morning to attend a conference of the heads of educational institutions of the state and heads of various bureaus and departments of State Boards called by the Executive Committee of the Federation of Missouri Commercial Clubs to consider matters pertaining to the welfare and advancement of the state.

Thursday evening, May 4, Mr. Richardson will give the Commencement address at Easton.

W. J. Osburn, instructor in the department of education, gave the commencement address of the Pickering High School, Friday night, April 21. His subject was "Vacational Guidance."

Coburn Players to Come Again.

Of unusual interest to all is the announcement that on June 26 and 27 the Coburn Players will arrive in Maryville on their third annual tour. In response to a request by faculty and students, they will present "Hamlet," perhaps the most widely known and best loved of all Shakespeare's tragedies.

"Richard III," is the other Shakespearean tragedy to be enacted by that company. This play is famous for its popularity with Shakespearean actors and from an artistic point of view will be instructive, in addition to the historical interest surrounding it.

To relieve the heavy tendency of the program they will put on "The Rivals," an early nineteenth century comedy by the famous English playwright, Sheridan.

This is an opportunity worthy of attention and comment, and one full of educational advantage to those who can be in Maryville at that time.

THE "BEAR CATS" WIN AND LOSE

The "Bear Cats" Lost to Kirksville
Here April 27—Win From Tarkio
May 1—Splendid Spirit.

The "Bear Cats" returned victorious from a conflict with the Tarkio nine on the latter's court May 1, the score being 1 to 0.

The one score was made by Miller. He was on second base when Vandersloot made a three-base hit and brought him "home." This is the last game that Vandersloot will play in Tarkio and it is pleasing to know that he made such an excellent record in his last game there. Mercer's outfielding was exceptionally good. He fielded six put-outs. The "Bear Cats" got four hits to Tarkio's seven. Wakeman pitching for Maryville struck out seven men, while Monk of Tarkio struck out six. Two double plays mark one feature of the "Bear Cat's" playing. Good team work in critical places and the "never say die," spirit of the team won the game. If the students would arouse in themselves the spirit which the team showed in this game and manifest it by witnessing the home games the team would show its appreciation by winning the games.

Batteries: Tarkio—Monk and Reector. Maryville: Wakeman and Hickman.

Umpire: Pyres.

The members of the team report that they were well treated during their short stay in Tarkio.

The Maryville Normal lost to Kirksville Normal by the score of 4 to 1. This makes the second conference game Maryville Normal has lost. The Maryville players held Kirksville down to three hits and got seven themselves, but lost the game thru errors.

Maryville's only run was made by Leech in the fifth inning when he hit thru short. Harry Tilson doubled into centerfield and brought Leech in. Kirksville's first run was made in the third, with one man out. Dillinger drew a walk. Cole went to first when Hickman fumbled a bunt. Brown bunted, Wakeman fielded the ball and overthrew third, letting in two runs.

Kirksville's next scoring was in the ninth, when Chambers, first man up, made an infield hit. Petree flew out to Vandersloot, Neff went to first and Chambers to second when Scott fumbled a grounder. Both advanced on a pass-

CONTESTS.

In the spring of the year we have the various contests to look forward to. Among these are the track, athletic and literary contests. Many people are not in favor of the track work thinking that it is a strain on the person taking part. This is not true if the person trains regularly and does not overwork himself.

Again it is said that this work exercises only the physical body. Mental activity must enter into track practice or athletic work of any kind. The runner figures out what part of the track is best and what speed he should acquire in order to win. In athletic contests, particularly in baseball, the expression, "that player lost his head" is often used. This is quite often used with reference to a pitcher. But the pitcher who knows how to use his head is the one in demand. Athletic work is of great value to a person. It has often taught a boy or girl to curb his or her temper and with a good instructor the principle of fairness is made a part of the student.

Literary contests have their values, too. First of all, literary work teaches us to express our own thoughts. This is well shown in essay and debate. Secondly, it gives us a broader knowledge. In order to write knowingly one must first gather material. To do this one must read and organize what he reads. Third, it enables us, through study to interpret the thoughts of others. The latter is of great use in oration and declamation. All three may be used to good advantage in extemporaneous speaking.

Last, but not least, is the contest spirit. There should be an element of rivalry and this spirit should be developed in the right way. A spirit of rivalry may be developed into the fighting spirit and as a result people lose their tempers and do things which they should not do. Contestants should have a friendly attitude toward each other, always remembering the fact that they are judged impartially.

A Successful Wedding.

"Too bad, Sister Sagg — suttlingly 'twas!—dat you' couldn't be at de weddin'," sympathetically said Sister Tuggle, who had been present, relates Puck. "Ah-Lawd!—'twuz one o' the most sonorous events of de present social season. yass'm! De bride, wid her haid all fussed up like had been done wid an egg-beater, came uh-gliddin' up de aisle, exceeded by re rushers and six little gals disarrayed as angels uh-strooin' flowers in de way, uh-whitst da awgin pealed fo'th de Weddin' March fum Meddlesome, followed by a whole puhsession o' swell elegant kinfolks uh-smellin' o' puffoomery like an observatory, and two little boys, dressed like charrybims, up-holdin' up her trail. Pahson Bagster met 'em dar at the cancellation rail, and 'twuz all gwine fine twell he done axed, 'Who-all giveth dis yuh woman away?' and dat low-down, triffin' gamblin' man, Snoot Judson, settin' back yander by de do', spoge up, and says, 'Ah, Lawd! I could, but I isn't dat mean!' De rushers done put him out, razzah and all; and dat was de end o' him. And den de Pahson spoke de solemn words o' de sarrymony, and 'most everybody cried, 'twuz so disinfecant."

"M-m—yess'm!" returned the lady addressed. "But what about de groom? Yo' isn't mentioned his a-tall."

"Oh, he was de conventional black."

Easter Luncheon.

Another of the series of luncheons in the Domestic Science department was given by Misses Blanche Daise and Merle Scarborough, Friday, April 28. The Easter idea was carried out in the menu and decorations.

The menu was: Tomato cocktail, cream of celery soup, and croutons, fried ham, potato puffs, Harvard beets, Rice muffins with butter, Marguerite salad, Apricots in Easter style, coffee, bonbons.

The guests were Misses H. M. Anthony, Lola Wright, Mrs. Alice Perrin and M. W. Wilson. Mrs. Flo Severin and Miss Ora Quinn acted as host and hostess.

Training School Notes.

All the students in the Training school devoted their time Friday April 19 to activities relating to Easter.

The kindergarten children had an Easter party and an egg hunt.

The primary pupils also had a party. They dressed in paper costumes representing flowers and told stories. The second grade children told some stories and then gave a dance using different flowers as decorations. The children then united in having an exciting egg hunt.

The third grade cooked eggs and served luncheon in the regular lunch room. The children did all the work.

The intermediate grades had a party out in the grove and roasted eggs.

The two literary societies which are composed of the pupils in the seventh and eighth grades, gave a program indoors after which they went to the grove and had a party which did not lack an egg roast as a part of the program for enjoyment.

Assembly Notes.

Mrs. C. Edwin Wells entertained the students and faculty with a musical program at the Assembly hour, Thursday, April 27. Mrs. William Moll Case was to have been here but was unable to come. Her program was as follows: "A May Morning".....Dennison
"I Know a Lovely Garden"
"The Little Gray Home in the West" Instrumental
"Waltz in E"
Prelude.

Vocal

"Woodland"
"Somewhere a Voice is Calling"
"Three Green Bonnets"
"My Laddie"

Senior Notes.

The committee on the Senior class-day pageant has worked up a presentation of Shakespearean drama that promises unusual entertainment.

There will be six main divisions for each of which the following committee has been appointed: 1. The Fairy Prologue: Miss Gustin, Miss Younger, Mr. Breit. 2. The Arrival of the Children: Miss Wamsley, Mr. Fauntz. 3. Youths and Maidens: Mr. Philip Colbert, Miss Lucile Snowberger. 4. Stratford Dignitaries: Miss Criswell, Miss Kemp, Mr. Garrett. 5. Folk Dances: Miss Prussman, Miss Mutz, Mr. Searlett. 6. London Actors: Miss Evans, Mr. McClintock, Mr. Leech.

This pageant will be of particular interest since it represents the celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the death of William Shakespeare, as well as the tenth anniversary of the school here.

Members of the Senior class who are taking part in the play, "Threads of Destiny," are spending the long hours of the afternoon in rehearsal. Mr. Miller, head of the vocal expression department, is training the cast in clearness of enunciation and value of emphasis.

With so early a start and so excellent a training the play this year shows indications of unusual success.

A Mighty Czar.

There's one as haughty and austere,
As any Czar;

He always moves in a mighty sphere
Without a bar;

So for true haughtiness, I shout,
There's none to chafe

Like him who calls the runner out
When he is safe.

Ah, daily in the stands I've wept
Forlorn and sore;

And cursed him for a thieving klept,
With maudlin roar;

But oh, there is no autoerut,
Or near the likes

Of him who stands behind the bat
And calls the strikes.

Miss Elizabeth Sobbing spent Saturday, April 29 at her home in Hopkins.

Exchange Notes.

Don't forget to watch for the outcome of the inter-state oratorical contest which is to be held at Springfield May 5. This contest comes to Missouri but once in five years, having been held in Kansas, Illinois, Iowa, and Wisconsin the last four years.

Look on the front page of the Howard-Payne Exponent for April, if you want to see a picture of the strongest Girl's Basket Ball Team in the state, and the record which won them the title of Missouri State Champions.

Do you feel blue? If so read the freak number of the Capaha Arrow, April 6, and see if it doesn't relieve the depressing situation.

Drury College is out for an additional endowment of $500,000. We wish Drury the best of success in her progressive undertaking.

Junior May-Day Festivities.

Some time ago, in some column you were informed of the fact that the "Juniors were awake." Tuesday morning, May 2 dawned fair and certain individuals about the Normal began to think that something would happen. A realization of the fact that yellow and white are the Junior colors was brought about by impressions received when the onlookers gazed upon the Junior lasses. Instead of going into assembly, students were informed that they should assemble on the campus. And then what else could happen except a May pole dance.

The class color scheme was carried out in the costumes of the members of the class.

Mr. Osburn, one of the class sponsors, furnished music on his violin. First a group of Junior girls and boys gave a pretty little dance. Then the girls wound and unwound the ribbons attached to the May pole.

F. R. Marcell was present to record the activities on a moving picture film.

Miss Mary Boggs went to Pickering, Saturday, April 29, where she acted as referee in the track meet held there.

A Unique Newspaper.

Buenos Aires, South America, capitol city of the Republic of Argentine, maintains an important daily newspaper, "La Prensa," which is different from any other publication in the world, in that it not only circulates the daily news but provides free legal advice to the public, and a medical and dental service without charge. It conducts a school of music, bureaus of information relative to schools, etc., and maintains rooms for public meetings, plays, concerts and lectures. It also furnishes a library and reading rooms for the use of the public, as well as luxurious apartments for the entertainment of distinguished guests. On the roof of its fine building is an observatory which keeps track of the weather, and locates fires by the aid of its powerful searchlight. "La Prensa" supports for the benefit of its employees a restaurant, gymnasium and hospital. Its editor-in-chief is Doctor Adolfo E. Davila. Senora Angela de Costa, of Buenos Aires, is the president of the South American Association for Universal Peace, and this flourishing capitol city is keenly interested in all the great international questions of the day. —Companion.

SCOTLAND'S KING MURDERED.

He Was Visiting at the Castle of his Kinsman and Subject Macbeth—
The King's Sons Have Fled.

The Aged King Was Found Dead in Bed by His Subject Macduff, Whose Special Duty it Was to Awaken the King.

(Torres Palace via Glasgow—Special to The Green and White Courier).—

All the world was shocked to hear of the murder of Duncan, the aged king of Scotland, sometime last night or early this morning. The king came last night to the castle of his subject and kinsman, Macbeth, for a short visit. This morning he was found dead in bed, while his bodyguards were sleeping, presumably under the influence of wine. Lord Macbeth was so overcome with anger at the unfaithfulness of the guards that when they denied any knowledge of the crime he slew both with the sword.

A Night to Be Remembered.

Last night was one to be remembered not only because of the death of the king, but also because of the conflict of the elements. It is said that one of the greatest storms ever known to Scotland came last night. Many other unusual incidents happened as the hooting of owls around Macbeth's castle, and even Duncan's horses ate their own flesh!

Lord and Lady Macbeth Grief Stricken.

Lord and Lady Macbeth are very griefstricken over the murder of the king. Besides killing the guards as related before Macbeth seemed all broken up on account of the murder. He seemed to think it impossible that any one would kill Scotland's king. Lady Macbeth was so shocked that she fainted when the details of the murder were discussed. Such a deed in one's castle would upset anyone.

Duncan's Two Sons Have Fled.

Soon after the murder Duncan's two sons were missing. A search revealed the fact that they had left the castle soon after the discovery of their father's murder. Many have started the rumor that the sons were implicated. The last act seems to justify such a rumor. Later reports say that Malcolm is on the way to England, and Donaldbain on the way to Ireland.

Lord Macbeth Possibly Next King.

The flight of the king's sons will cause a change in the selection of Duncan's successor. Malcolm was in line for the successor of his father, but his flight makes this impossible. Lord Macbeth is the most powerful thane in Scotland and will probably be chosen the next king.

ed ball. E. Dillinger struck out. J. Dillinger was walked. This filled the bases. Bartlett was walked, Chambers scoring. Neff made the fourth score when Scott for the second time failed to field a grounder.

In the ninth inning it looked for a while as if the Maryville players would whip up and show some form. Hickman got to first on Chambers' failure to field the ball. Wakeman did the same thing. Then Hickman went in a trance near second long enough to get tagged. Ed. Adams who took Willson's place chopped out. Leech came to bat next and put Wakeman out by hitting him on the shin. This was the third out.

The Maryville team had plenty of chances to win the game but lacked snap, pep or something necessary to take advantages offered.

Tarkio Here May 3.

The Normal baseball field will be the scene of a hard fought battle May 3, when the Tarkio nine will battle with the "Bear Cats." There has always been a strong rivalry between the two schools in all athletic work and this game promises to be a most interesting one. Maryville students are placing their hopes high since the "Bear Cats" came back victorious May 1. Both schools have strong teams. The pitchers are known as "extra good" ones and with the "never give up" spirit of each team and the strong support of the schools, each expects to win the game. The game will be called at 3:30 this (Wednesday) afternoon.
